QUEEN NAMED WHITFIELD COUNTY CHIEF APPRAISER

Whitfield County, Ga – On Thursday, February 15th, the Whitfield County Board of Assessors unanimously voted Kristi Queen as the new Chief Appraiser.

Queen has been with the Tax Assessors Office since 1997, and served 14 years as Deputy Chief Appraiser. In that time, Queen has achieved a Georgia level 4 certified appraiser status.

“I feel privileged to have been granted this opportunity,” said Queen. “Having dedicated nearly 27 years of service to the residents of Whitfield County, it is with great pride that I assume the role of Whitfield County’s Chief Appraiser. I am committed to leading an office that values teamwork, professionalism, integrity, and excellence.”
